Asia Pacific's Hidden Gems, Recommended by WebBeds

Travel in Asia Pacific is booming, but how much do guests really know about the region's favourite destinations? Most travellers will have visited a city's top tourist attractions, but to discover the heart and soul of the destination, it is essential to head off the tourist trail and experience the city as the locals do.

Only people who live and work in a destination can truly know the best places to visit. This month, WebBeds has asked our local team of executives in Asia Pacific to reveal the best lesser-known local attractions in their home cities. So, whether you're looking for an authentic restaurant, genuine shopping experiences or the coolest places to hang out, we've got the inside track!

Here's our selection of hidden gems in Asia Pacific, as recommended by WebBeds' managers:

Seoul

★ FAVOURITE BEAUTY PRODUCT

Seoul is famous for its beauty products and people travel from all across Asia to purchase Korean cosmetics. I would recommend CMADECA Cream by Dongkook Pharmaceutical; it is really effective and keeps my skin moisturized all day. My mum uses it too! It can be found at the Lotte Department Store near Myeong-dong and Shinsegye Department Store near Namdaemun Market. I would also suggest Age 20's Essence Foundation, which is available at The Shilla Duty Free Shop.

📍 WHERE TO STAY

The Shilla Seoul

The Shilla Seoul is still arguably the city's best hotel. Perfect for families, it has a beautiful outdoor pool, kids' pool and a great breakfast with lots of variety. Shilla is a Korean brand and the hotel showcases local culture with its Sculpture Garden and ancient fortress wall. There is a Shilla Duty Free Shop right next door and the popular Dongdaemun Market is just 20 minutes away by public transport.

Sydney

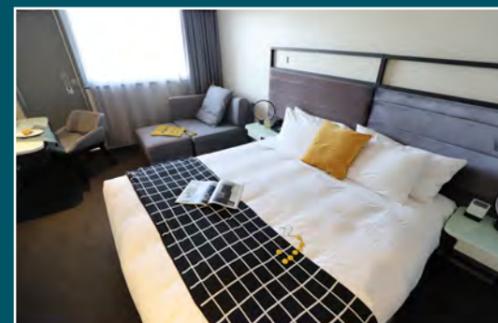

★ FAVOURITE LOCAL BAR

For guests who want to unwind and enjoy a tipple, I would suggest the Manly Wharf Hotel. Head to Circular Quay, next to the Sydney Opera House, and catch the local ferry to Manly. From here you can walk to Shelley Beach and stop at the Manly Wharf Hotel on the way back. You can sit on the deck and sip a crisp local beer, and even enjoy a great plate of fish and chips. Depending on the time of year, you might even catch a glimpse of the local penguins that roost under the pier.

📍 WHERE TO STAY

Best Western Haven Glebe

Best Western Haven Glebe is a boutique hotel located in the cosmopolitan suburb of Glebe, just five minutes' drive from Sydney CBD and Darling Harbour. This makes it feel like a cosy retreat, but it is still well connected to the city via public transport. All 56 contemporary rooms feature king-sized Sealy beds, LCD TVs, balconies and free Wi-Fi, while the bathrooms offer L'Occitane products. Guests can also work out in the gym.

Osaka

★ FAVOURITE ONSEN

All visitors to Japan should experience an onsen. Located just outside Osaka, Arima Onsen is one of the oldest and most important spa towns in the country. The hot springs at Arima Onsen have seven out of the nine natural components recognised for their curative effects. There are many bathing facilities in the town, some of which are open-air, and travellers can even enjoy a quick foot bath to rest their weary feet, free-of-charge.

📍 WHERE TO STAY

Courtyard by Marriott Shin-Osaka Station

Courtyard by Marriott Shin-Osaka Station is perfectly positioned next to the main railway hub for local and bullet trains. This puts the whole of Osaka and the entire Kansai region - including Kobe and Kyoto - within easy reach. Guests can relax in intuitively designed rooms, with great city views from the higher floors, and the Executive Lounge offers a range of additional services. The hotel's teppanyaki restaurant is also a great place to dine and entertain.

Recommended by:

Vincent Leung,
*WebBeds' Managing Director,
Hong Kong, Philippines & Japan*

Hong Kong

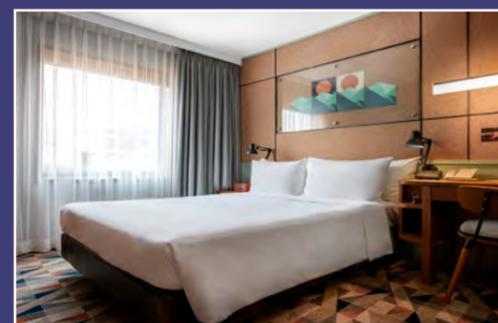

★ FAVOURITE YUM CHA/DIM SUM PLACE

My favourite place to yum cha is Hung Kee Seafood Restaurant. Although the restaurant itself is famous for its seafood, the dim sum is a fantastic weekend lunch option. Located in Sai Kung, Hung Kee is a typical no-frills Hong Kong restaurant. Guests are greeted by tanks of live seafood which are spectacular even by local standards! There is a wide selection of dim sum and you can choose to sit outdoors and soak up the amazing sea views.

📍 WHERE TO STAY

Eaton Hong Kong

Eaton Hong Kong is perfectly located in the authentic Jordan neighbourhood, in the heart of Kowloon. This gives guests easy access to the bustling bazaars of Chungking Mansions and Temple Street. The newly-refurbished Eaton Rooms are highly sustainable, with natural mattresses and organic bath products, plus high-tech amenities like USB ports and smart TVs. One of the main attractions is the onsite food hall, which has 11 trendy stalls and bars.

Chiang Mai

★ FAVOURITE PLACE TO SAMPLE LOCAL CUISINE

Chiang Mai is an incredible place to live. The jungle-clad mountains of northern Thailand are my unofficial back yard and I love to explore the area by bike. Just 10 minutes' ride from my house is Huay Tung Tao, where you can find some amazing local bamboo restaurants nestled along the banks of a river, serving local delicacies like "dancing shrimp" and steamed fish at very reasonable prices. It can also be reached by a downhill mountain bike ride from the top of Doi Suthep!

📍 WHERE TO STAY

Sibsan Luxury Hotel Rimping

Sibsan Luxury Hotel Rimping is a unique boutique hotel on the banks of the Ping River in Chiang Mai. Built in traditional Lanna style, it transports guests into an elegant bygone era. Quiet enough to be an oasis away from the city yet close enough to Chiang Mai to be convenient, Sibsan features just 32 beautifully-designed rooms with authentic décor, plus a traditional Thai spa, a riverside coffee house and restaurant serving both local and international cuisine.

How Timeless Quotes are Inspiring Millennial Travel

Will your next adventure be inspired by an ancient Asian proverb or influenced by the words of a 19th Century French novelist? In the modern age of social media and internet memes, motivational travel quotes are being shared in cyberspace, encouraging a new generational of millennial explorers to pack their bags and see the world.

Whether you aspire to “take only memories, leave only footprints” or “follow the road less travelled”, or “seek other states, other lives, other souls”, travel quotes have the power to capture the imagination. Certain quotes can even evoke the spirit of a particular place or experience.

In this edition of Travel Aggregator, we’ll show how the words of writers, philosophers and explorers from the past still have the power to inspire travellers in the 21st Century.

"Once a year, go someplace you've never been before."

- Dalai Lama

Christ the Redeemer, Rio de Janeiro

For many travellers, Rio is an attractive and appealing destination that remains tantalisingly out of reach. For Asians it can seem too far away, but Rio is perfect for visitors who are prepared to "go someplace they've never been before". The landscape of Brazil's second largest city is truly iconic, with its stunning waterfront, golden beaches and soaring peaks. Stroll along the Copacabana coast, take a cable car up Sugarloaf Mountain and visit the statue of Christ the Redeemer.

 WHERE TO STAY

Hilton Rio de Janeiro Copacabana

Experience the ultimate Brazilian vacation at Hilton Rio de Janeiro Copacabana. Overlooking the beach and Atlantic Ocean, this stunning seafront property features two sparkling swimming pools, a sublime spa, a restaurant and multiple bars, including beachside service at the Copacabana waterfront. The Rio Sul Shopping Mall is nearby and most rooms offer uninterrupted views of the ocean.

"Life is either a daring adventure or nothing at all."

Helen Keller

Kawarau Bridge Bungy, Queenstown

New Zealand is the spiritual home of bungee jumping, and there is no better place to experience this "daring adventure" than Queenstown. Nestled in the mountains, this scenic South Island city is the outdoor adventure capital of the Southern Hemisphere and home to an array of death-defying leaps, including the third highest bungee platform in the world! This activity is certainly not for the faint-hearted, but it perfectly captures the thrill-seeking spirit of New Zealand.

 WHERE TO STAY

Crowne Plaza Queenstown

Crowne Plaza Queenstown is ideal for guests seeking an outdoor adventure. Nestled on the shores of Lake Wakatipu and overlooking The Remarkables mountain range, this modern hotel embraces the spectacular natural landscapes, while the downtown attractions are also right on the doorstep. Each room has its own private balcony or courtyard, and facilities include a gym and an excellent restaurant.

"Travel makes one modest. You see what a tiny place you occupy in the world."

- Gustave Flaubert

The Grand Canyon, Arizona

Some natural wonders cannot be described in words; they simply have to be seen to be believed. The Grand Canyon is one such place. It is so spectacularly vast and beautiful that it makes you take a step back and reconsider your place in the world. Carved by the Colorado River, this awe-inspiring canyon is 446km long, up to 29km wide and in parts more than 1.8km deep. It is also believed to be over five million years old. Visitors cannot help but feeling "modest" against nature's achievements.

 WHERE TO STAY

Yavapai Lodge

Yavapai Lodge occupies a prime location within the Grand Canyon National Park. Less than 2km from the canyon's South Rim, this is a great place to start your adventure. Guests can stay in style with 358 modern rooms, a restaurant, bar and a newlyremodelled main lodge featuring cosy seating with a fireplace and an outdoor patio. The hotel is also close to the Grand Canyon Visitor Center and Geology Museum.

"Better to see something once than hear it a thousand times."

- Asian Proverb

Desert Safari, Dubai

Dubai is becoming one of the world's most impressive cities, with an array of manmade attractions that keep international visitors entertained throughout their stay. Just once however, why not take a break from the shopping malls and theme parks and head out to explore the wonders of the desert? A range of desert safaris are available, allowing guests to experience the rolling sand dunes by 4X4, ride a camel and even spend time at a Bedouin camp, with belly dancing and dinner under the stars.

 WHERE TO STAY

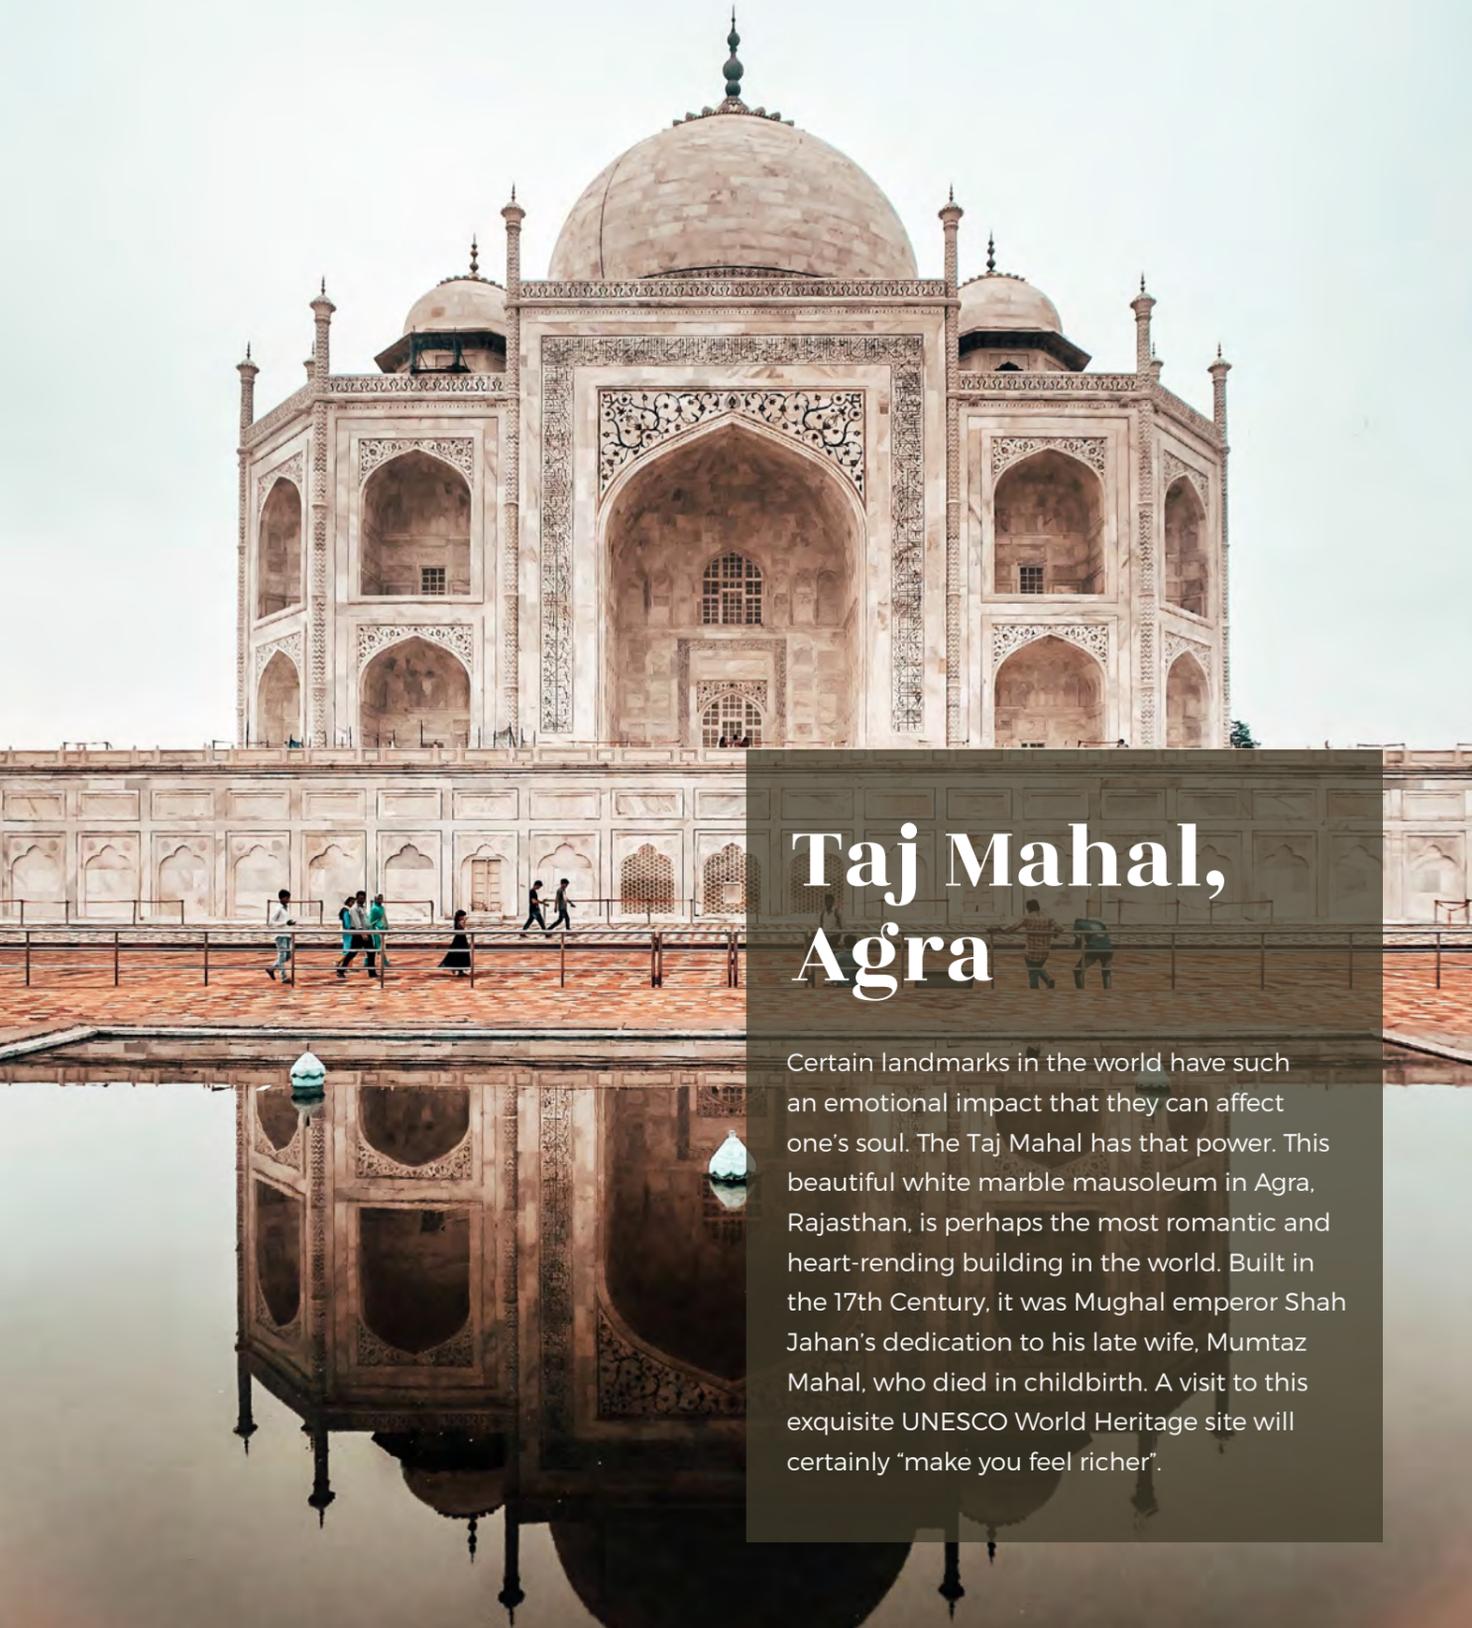

Palace Downtown

The Palace Downtown hotel provides a luxurious base for your Arabian adventure. Perfectly positioned, this premium hotel is the centrepiece of The Old Town Island, close to the Dubai Mall and Burj Khalifa, the world's tallest building. Guests can enjoy exceptional cuisine at Arabian, Asian and steakhouse restaurants, unwind at the spa and spend chic evenings at FAI, the stylish nightlife venue.

"Travel is the only thing you buy that makes you richer."

- Author Unknown

Taj Mahal, Agra

Certain landmarks in the world have such an emotional impact that they can affect one's soul. The Taj Mahal has that power. This beautiful white marble mausoleum in Agra, Rajasthan, is perhaps the most romantic and heart-rending building in the world. Built in the 17th Century, it was Mughal emperor Shah Jahan's dedication to his late wife, Mumtaz Mahal, who died in childbirth. A visit to this exquisite UNESCO World Heritage site will certainly "make you feel richer".

 WHERE TO STAY

Radisson Blu Agra Taj East Gate

Radisson Blu Agra Taj East Gate is located within walking distance of the Taj Mahal and close to the city's other architectural attractions, including the impressive Agra Fort. When guests are not exploring the local wonders, they can take a dip in the refreshing rooftop infinity pool, which overlooks the Taj Mahal, enjoy a rejuvenating spa treatment or dine in a choice of Indian and international restaurants.

CSR in Focus at The Fullerton Hotel Singapore

In the hospitality industry, corporate social responsibility (CSR) has evolved from being a token consideration to becoming one of the core pillars of a hotel's operations.

For a hotel to succeed, it needs to develop deep and lasting bonds with its destination. By creating community outreach programmes, helping to preserve the local environment, and providing training and employment opportunities for local people, hotels can create mutually beneficial relationships that help to ensure a bright future for the entire community.

One property that has successfully embraced the concept of CSR is The Fullerton Hotel Singapore. While it is already a multi-award-winning hotel and an officially recognised "National Monument" of Singapore, The Fullerton remains committed to helping local people.

Earlier this year, the hotel launched The Fullerton Academy in partnership with REACH Community Services. This new programme is designed to provide young people from low income families with apprenticeships in the areas of hospitality and the creative arts, equipping them with the skills needed to embark on successful careers in future.

Initially, 26 youths between the ages of 11 and 16 joined The Fullerton Academy, where they will be trained and mentored by hospitality professionals. This will not only help to improve their own future prospects; it has the potential to raise the living standards of their entire families and the wider community. Meanwhile, The Fullerton Hotel Singapore could potentially identify exceptional young talents who otherwise would not have had the chance to shine.

The Fullerton Hotel Singapore continues to set high standards for others to follow. Positioned the mouth of the Singapore River, this impressive hotel was the largest building in the city at the time of its construction in 1928. Ninety years later, it remains an iconic landmark of Singapore, featuring 400 luxurious rooms and suites, five exquisite F&B outlets including a rooftop bar, an outdoor infinity pool, The Fullerton Spa, a fitness centre and a boutique, plus The Fullerton Heritage Gallery which showcases the hotel's rich history.
