FOREWORD

Welcome to the latest edition of Travel Aggregator – WebBeds’ monthly newsletter dedicated to the travel trade in Asia Pacific!

As we move into April, many countries have now reopened their borders and the travel industry can see the green shoots of recovery starting to appear. This month, we’re marking the region’s re-emergence with two special features dedicated to travel in Thailand and Singapore!

In Thailand, the “Test & Go” programme has been relaunched for all international visitors. So, whatever you’ve missed most about the Land of Smiles – the culture, cuisine, climate or more – you can rediscover the many wonders of this captivating kingdom, including 10 fully-certified places to stay.

We’re also celebrating the expansion of quarantine-free travel to Singapore by showcasing many of the Lion City’s most compelling districts. From the bright lights of downtown to the nature trails of Sentosa, this walking guide lets you discover the many different aspects of this diverse city.

This month (22nd April) also marks Earth Day, the global movement that shines a spotlight on environmental issues. To mark this important occasion, we highlight some of Asia’s most sustainable resorts and their ongoing eco activities.

And of course, you can catch up with all the latest news, photos and exclusive offers from WebBeds in Asia Pacific.

Enjoy the read!

WELCOME BACK TO THAILAND WITH TEST & GO!

Have you missed travelling to Thailand? Do you dream of its blissful beaches, crave its captivating culture or hunger for its sumptuous street food? You don't need to wait any longer; Thailand is now welcoming fully vaccinated international travellers back to paradise with its "Test & Go" programme!

Check out our selection of SHA Extra Plus certified hotels for your next trip to the "Land of Smiles"!

TEST & GO PROGRAM

Thailand is open to fully vaccinated travellers from any country or territory worldwide! Under the country's "Test & Go" program, international visitors need to take a few simple steps to prepare for their trip in advance.

Firstly, they need to apply for a Thailand Pass within 60 days of their planned departure date. Once this is approved, guests will receive a QR Entry Code (or Thailand Pass ID) which needs to be presented upon entering the Kingdom. Each visitor also needs to have adequate insurance coverage and book and pay for their accommodation at an SHA Extra Plus certified hotel or resort in advance, including a PCR test upon arrival and a pre-arranged transfer from the airport to the hotel.

Having spent the first night of their trip in the accommodation and receiving a negative PCR test result, the guest will be free to travel anywhere in the country! Another self-test needs to be taken on the fifth day, but this can be quickly and independently submitted by the guest via an app.

Please note that these protocols are subject to change, so every traveller is advised to check the latest rules and regulations from the Tourism Authority of Thailand (TAT). Click here for the latest updates!

From Khao Lak to Phuket, every property featured in this article is SHA Extra Plus certified, which means that travellers can book them for their first night or an extended break in Thailand.

Take a Wander Through Singapore

Are you ready to rediscover Singapore? The Lion City is one of the world's most diverse and dynamic destinations, with a wealth of iconic and easily accessible attractions. Simply slip on your walking shoes and head out on foot to explore these five vibrant districts, each of which showcases a different side of the city.

With quarantine-free travel now available to all vaccinated travellers, this is the perfect time to experience the wonders of Singapore!

ORCHARD ROAD

Singapore's "shopper's paradise", Orchard Road has undergone a dramatic transformation. As its name suggests, this was an area for growing fruit in the 1800s. It is now one of Asia's most famous retail districts, home to many major international brands and a popular destination for locals and visitors alike.

Follow the Orchard Heritage Trail to uncover the area's historical gems.

MARINA BAY

Many of Singapore's most iconic modern landmarks await at Marina Bay, the spectacular reclaimed waterfront district that has transformed the city. Ride on the Singapore Flyer, snap selfies with the Merlion Statue, take in a show at Esplanade - Theatres on the Bay, and unwind at Marina Bay Sands. Singapore's 8km Jubilee Walk is a wonderful way to see all these amazing attractions.

SENTOSA

The island of Sentosa reveals a different side to this high-rise city. With forests, mangroves and beaches, this is a haven of tranquility. Visit the Sentosa Nature Discovery to learn about the environment, then head out along a series of nature walks including the Imbiah Trail, which takes you through the lush island interiors, and the Coastal Trail, which passes historical sites along the shoreline.

SINGAPORE RIVER

If the Singapore River could talk, it would have some amazing stories to tell! This waterway has been at the forefront of Singapore's heritage from the moment Sir Stamford Raffles stepped onto the island, right up to the present day. Trace the river's winding path with a walk from Boat Quay to Robertson Quay, stopping at lively restaurants and bars along the way.

CHINATOWN

Many cities have a Chinatown, but few are as captivating as Singapore's! Noted for its diversity, this intriguing area is not only home to a Chinese temple, but also to a church, mosque and a Hindu temple –on the same street! Visit the Chinatown Heritage Centre, grab a handy walking guide for insights into exploring this rewarding neighbourhood. Feeling hungry? Check out the local eateries and hip bars.

 IN THE HEART OF CHINATOWN

CAPRI BY FRASER, CHINA SQUARE

Capri by Fraser, China Square is a stylish hotel with interiors that blend elements of old Chinatown with a distinctly modern twist. Nestled in Singapore's historical and cultural heart, the hotel features smart rooms and suites with kitchens and dining areas, plus a rooftop pool, an all-day restaurant, shared social spaces and 24-7 services, such as the gym and laundrette.

 ALONG ORCHARD ROAD

GOODWOOD PARK HOTEL

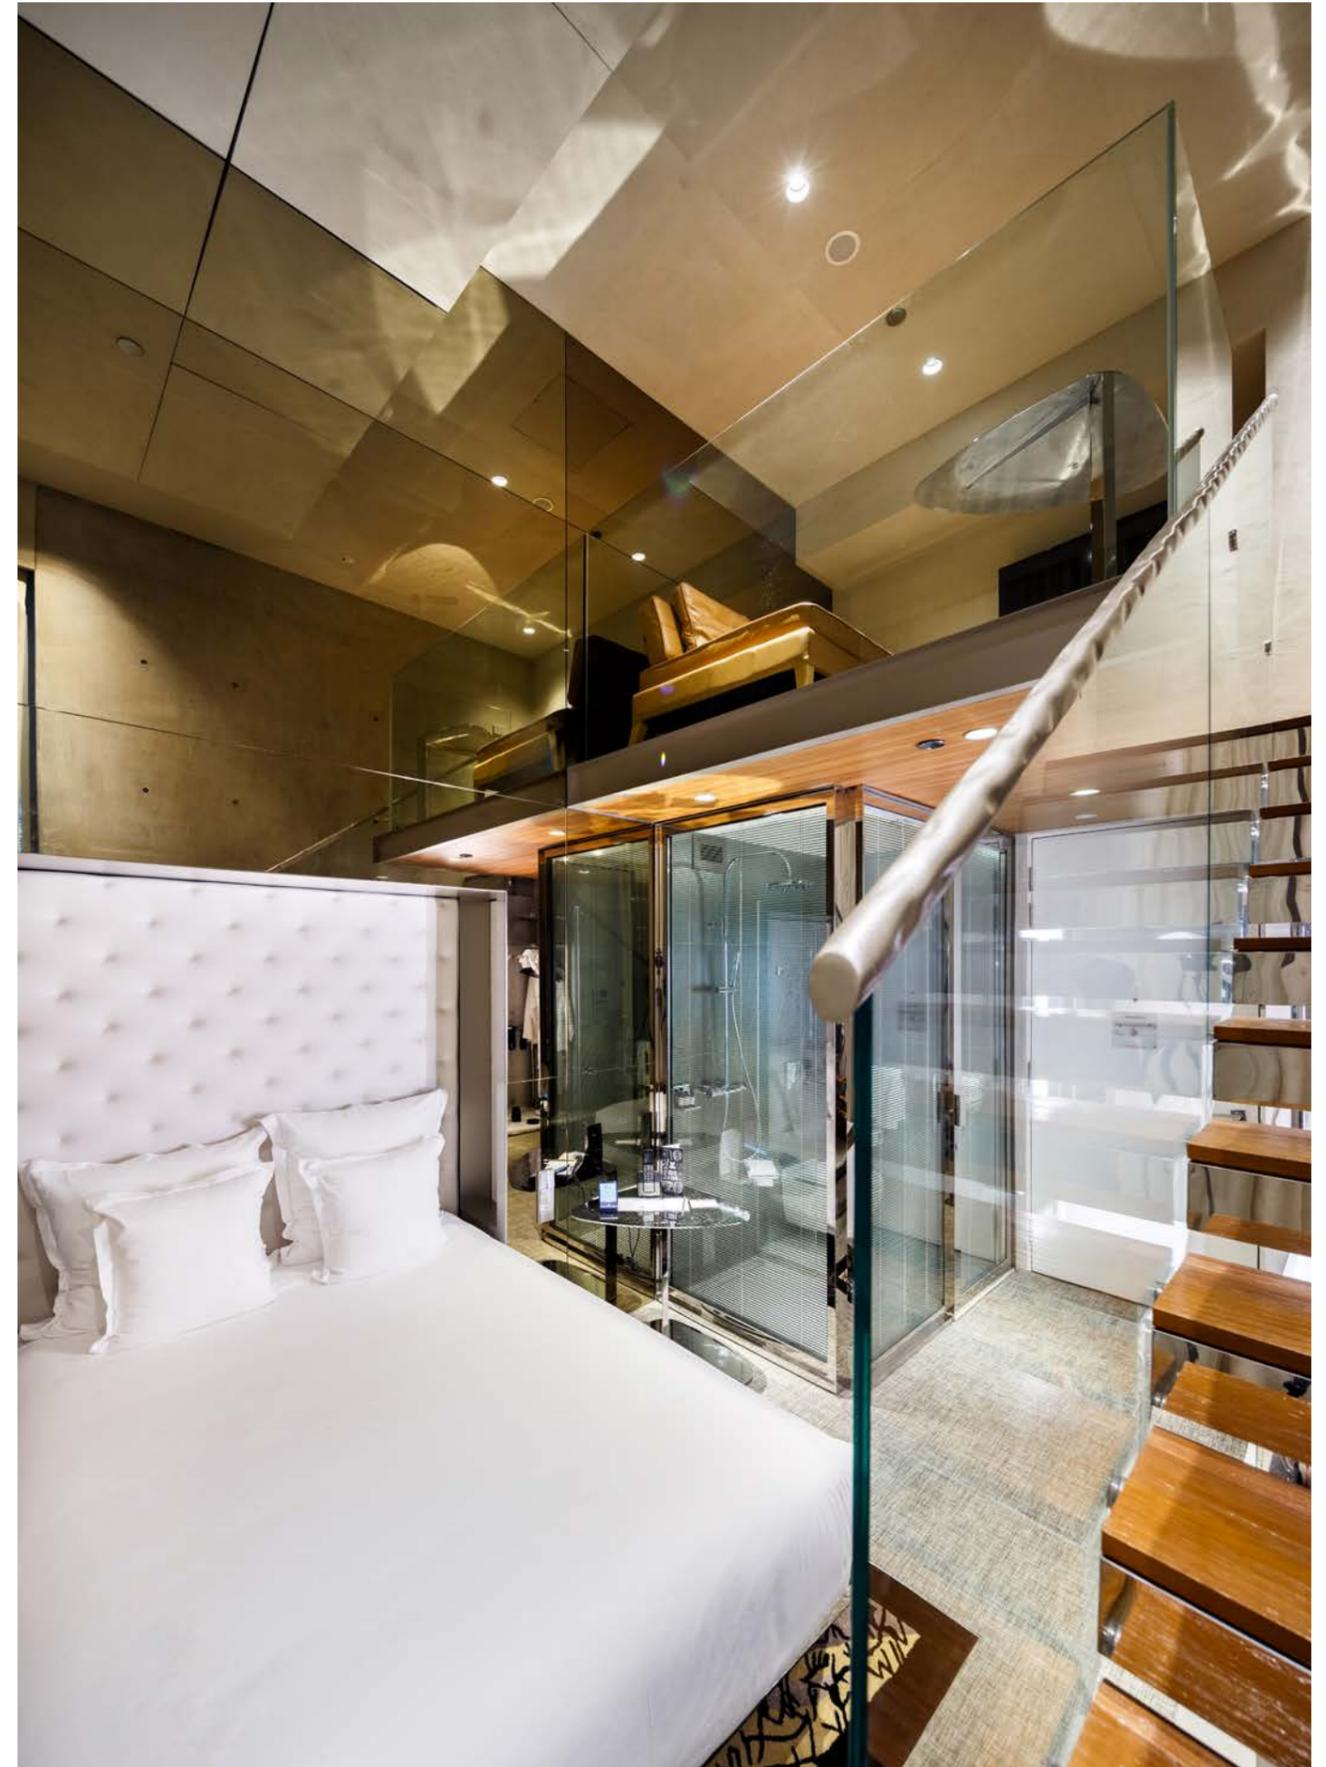

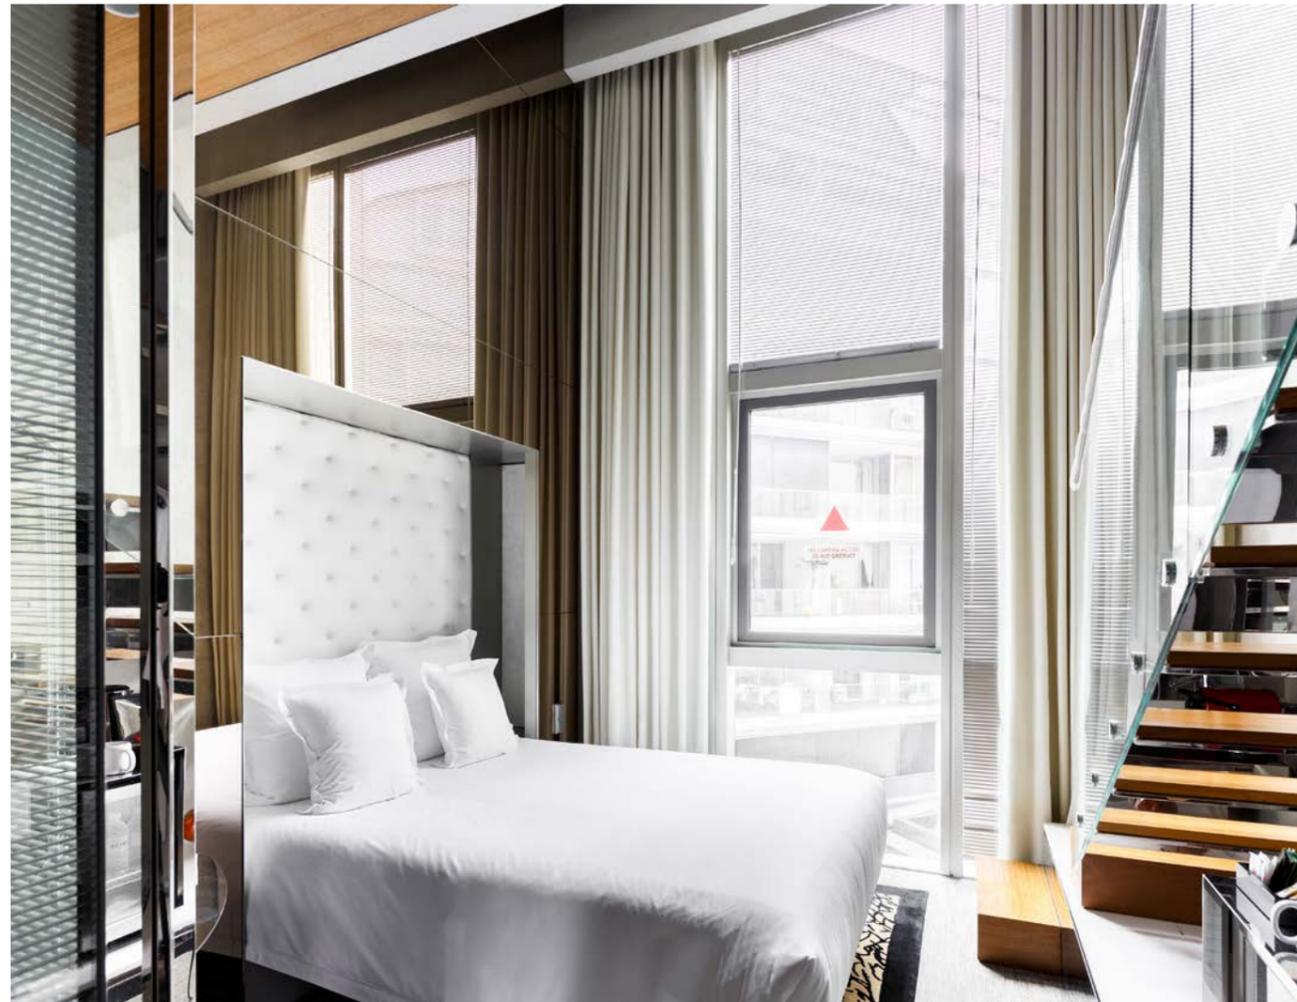

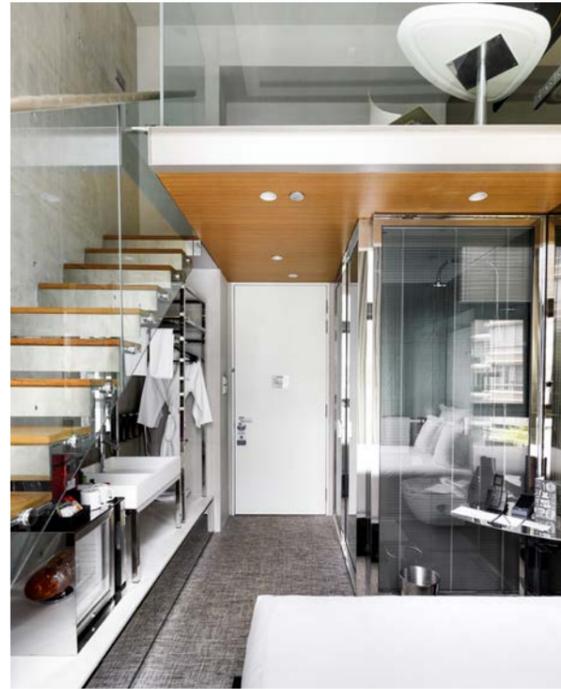

Goodwood Park Hotel is one of Singapore's most distinguished heritage hotels – a national landmark set amid six hectares of landscaped gardens within Singapore's retail belt. Dating from 1900, the hotel blends classical charm with contemporary style, including spacious rooms and suites, palm-shaded pools, seven dining options, a spa, beauty salon, fitness centre and more, all surrounded by lush greenery.

 ON THE BANKS OF THE SINGAPORE RIVER

M SOCIAL SINGAPORE

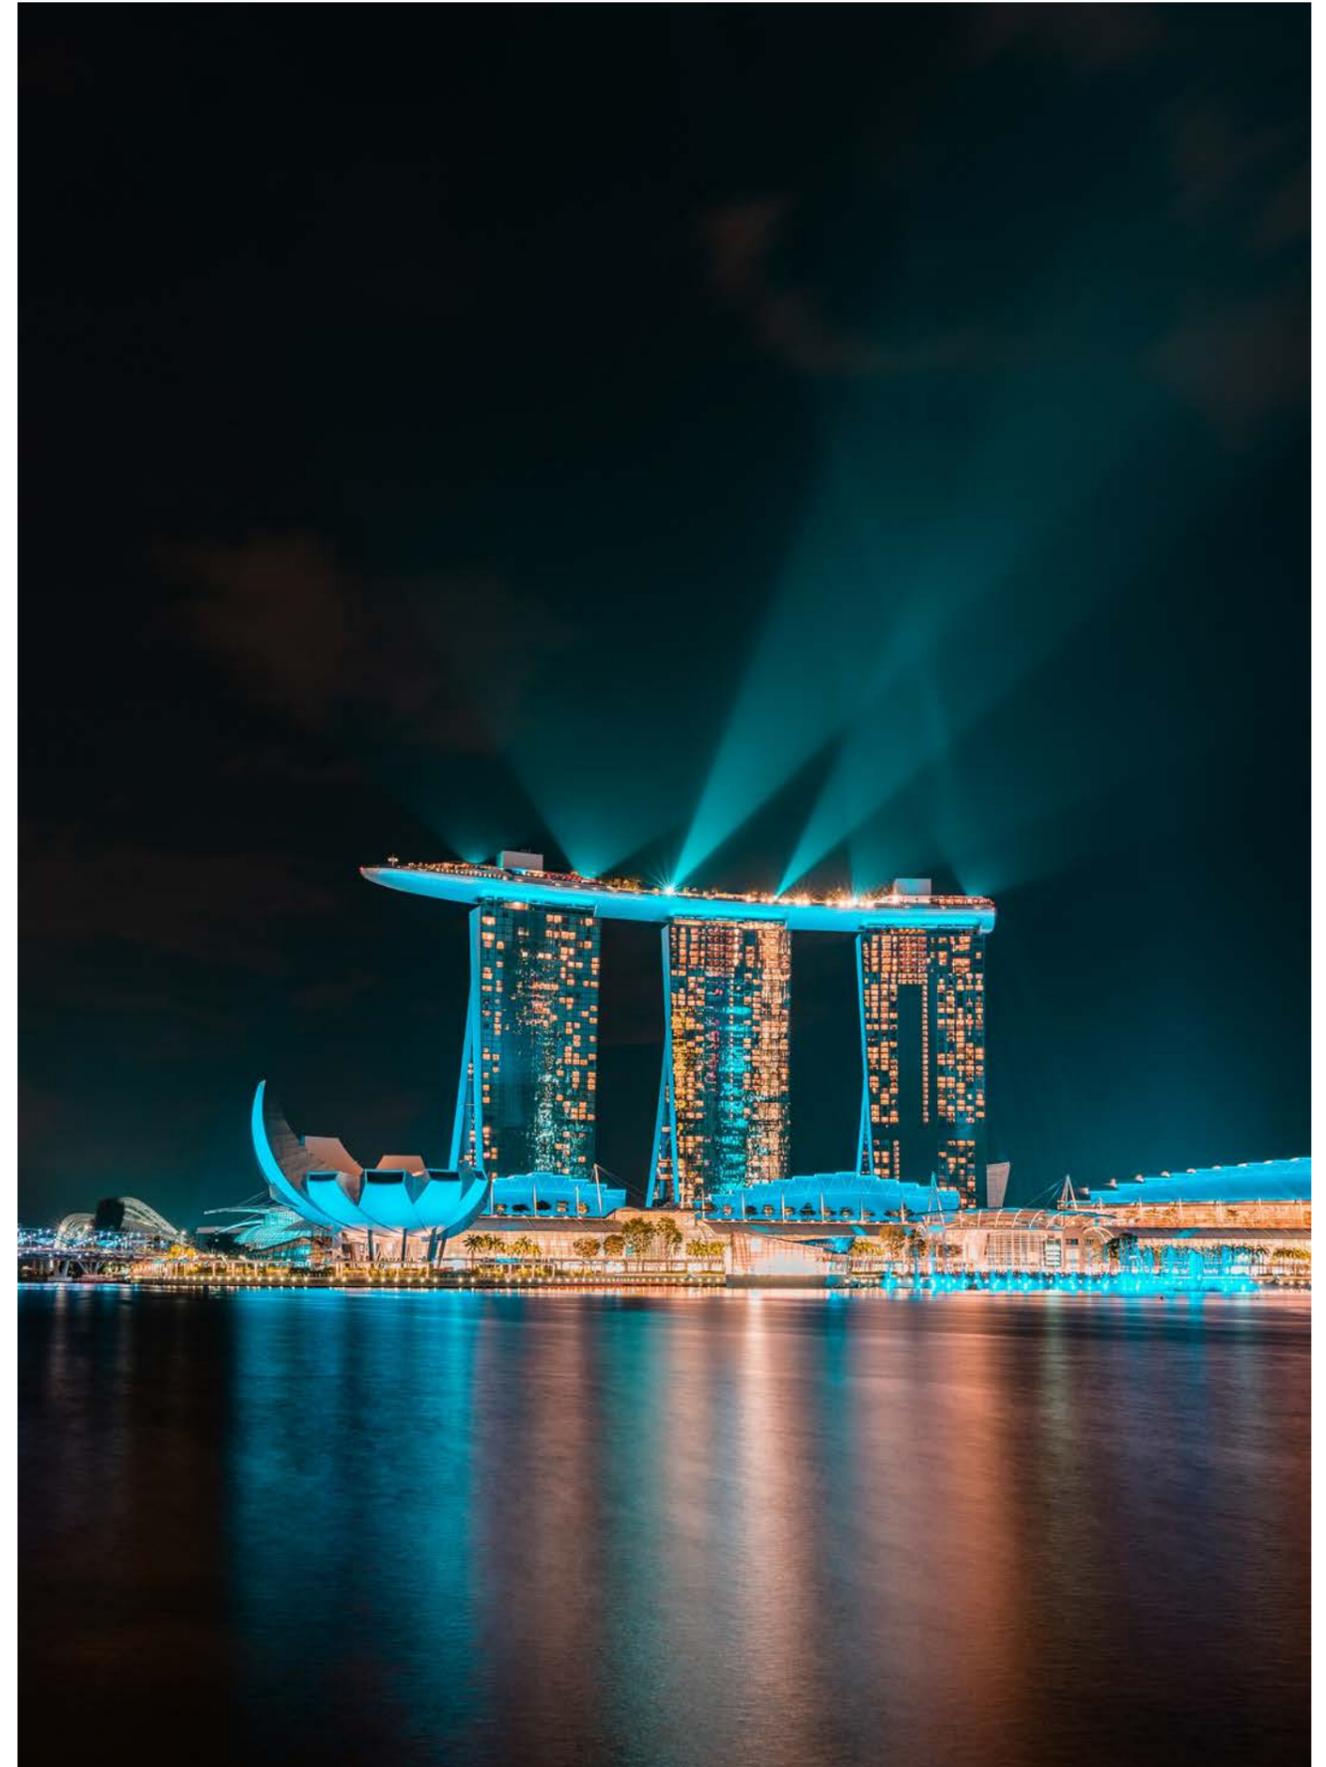

M Social Singapore is a chic and upbeat hotel, surrounded by vibrant waterside bars and restaurants at Robertson Quay. Designed by Philippe Starck, the property exudes a fresh, fun vibe, with a robotic reception desk and breakfast chef, loft and alcove style rooms, an outdoor pool and a fitness centre. The avant-garde restaurant and bar, Beast & Butterflies, specialises in contemporary Asian cuisine.

 ON THE MARINA BAY WATERFRONT

MARINA BAY SANDS

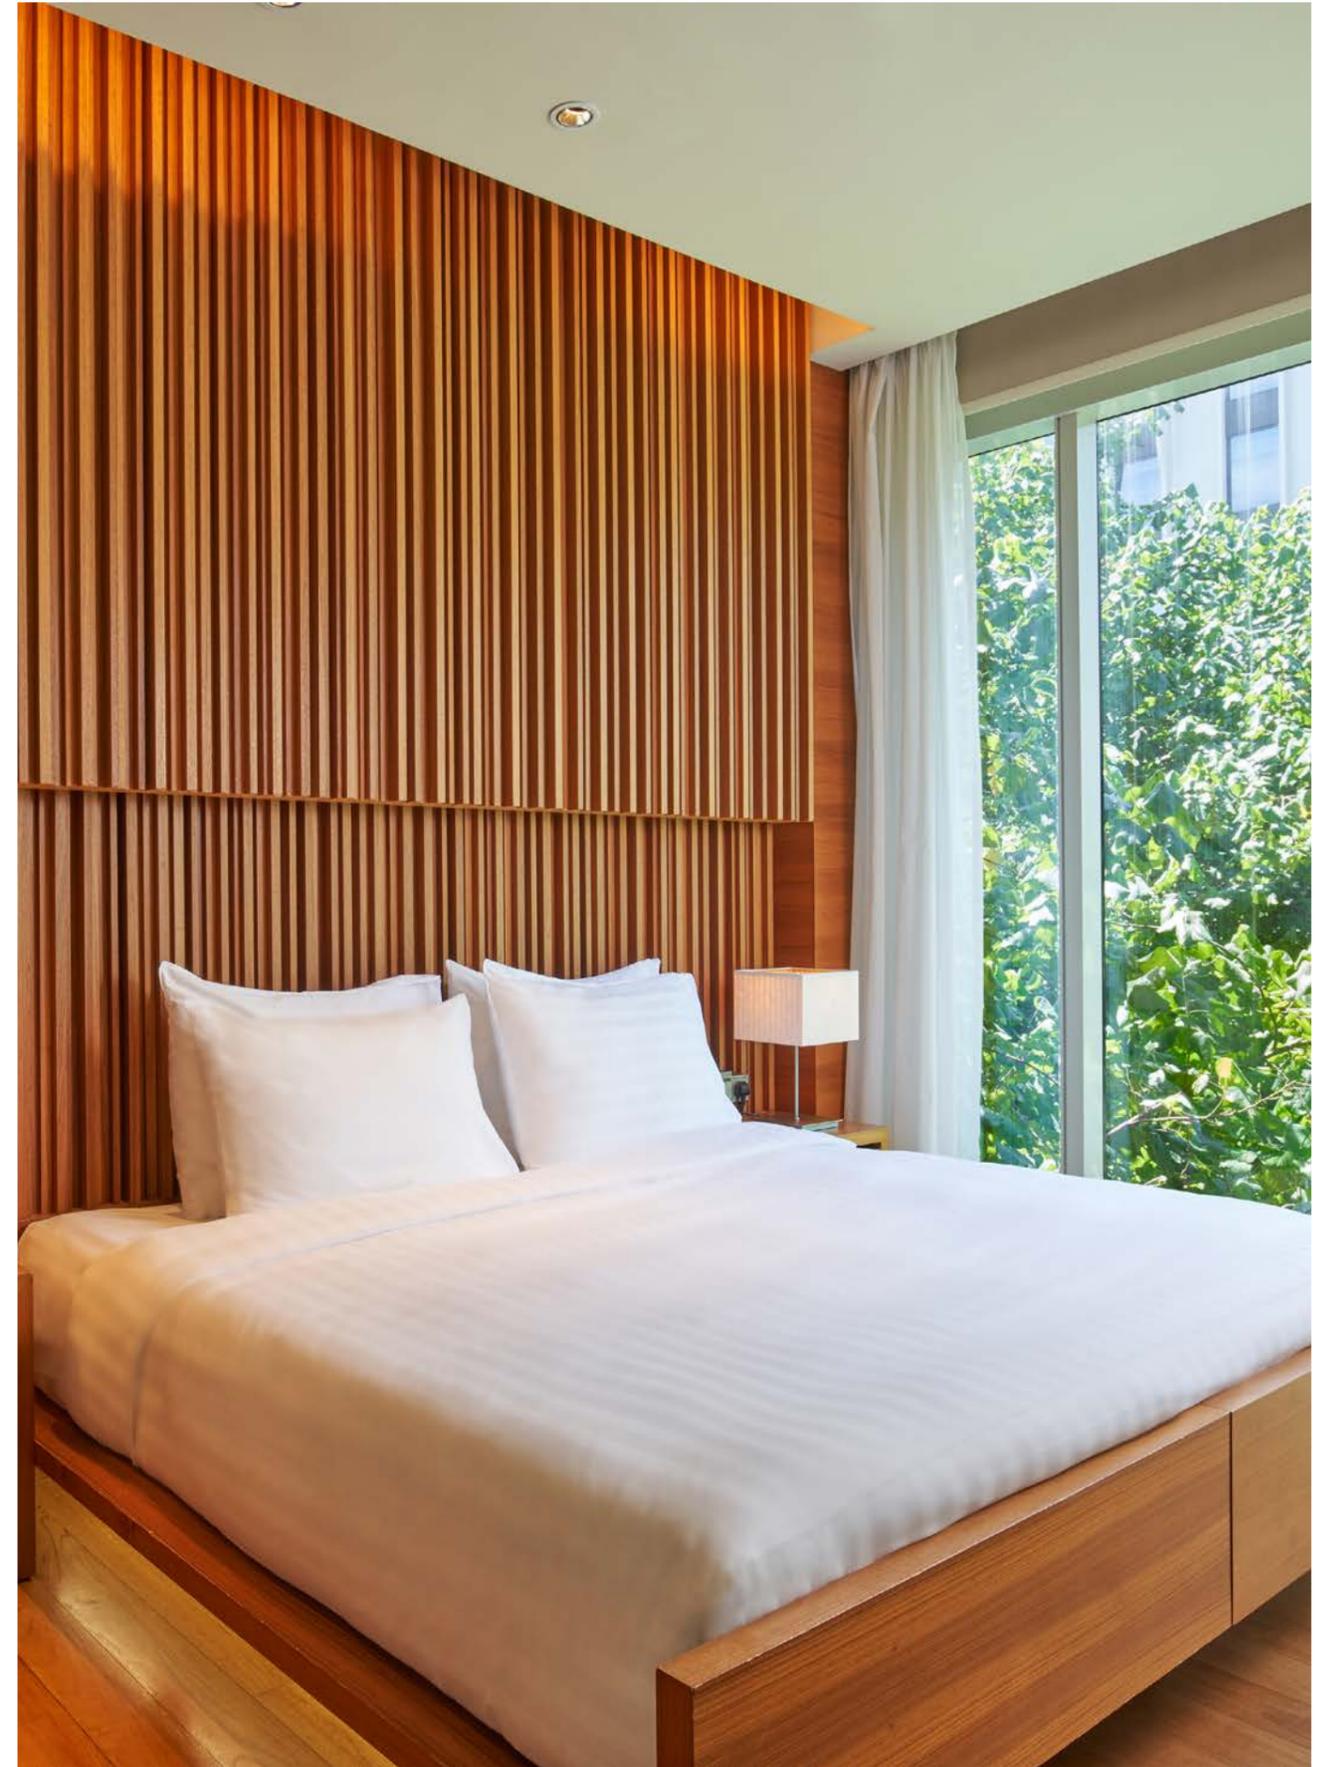

Marina Bay Sands is one of the world's most recognisable hotels - a three tower landmark crowned by its sweeping, 150-metre rooftop infinity pool (the longest elevated pool in the world). The spacious rooms and suites offer views of city, sea or the spectacular Gardens by the Bay, which is directly accessible from the hotel. The Banyan Tree Spa and Club55 promise complete relaxation.

 IN THE HEART OF SENTOSA ISLAND

OASIA RESORT SENTOSA

Oasia Resort Sentosa is a great option for guests who want to nurture their mind, body and soul. Located close to Imbiah Monorail Station and the island's nature trails, this enchanting heritage hotel features the first Oasia Spa, health-focused rooms equipped with yoga mats, natural amenities and rain showers, fitness activities and access to a spectacular multi-tiered Pamukkale Pool experience.

ECO ESCAPES IN ASIA PACIFIC

On Friday 22nd April, millions of people around the world will take part in environmental activities to celebrate Earth Day. This global movement aims to shine a spotlight on the critically important issues facing the planet. But for many hotels and resorts in Asia Pacific, conservation is embedded into their day-to-day operations. In this edition of Travel Aggregator, we highlight some of Asia's most sustainable resorts.

Experience Manhattan Pattaya, a Pattaya city hotel with modern and locally-made intensity. Each of 94 rooms including 15 suites with fully-equipped facilities are suitable for all travelers that wish to have a good night's ease.

Jetwing Yala

Yala, Sri Lanka

Nestled in 38 acres of coastal forest close to Yala National Park in southeast Sri Lanka, Jetwing Yala is an upscale beachfront retreat for eco-conscious guests. This highly self-sufficient resort produces its own solar power, biogas and desalinated water, treats and reuses 100% of its wastewater, produces its own organic fruit and vegetables, and provides opportunities to disadvantaged local youths through the Jetwing Youth Development Project. It has also created a turtle conservation centre at its beautiful beach.

Lizard Island Resort

North Queensland, Australia

Spectacular and secluded, Lizard Island is a jewel in the Great Barrier Reef, 27km off the coast of Queensland. In this natural eco-paradise, guests can unwind in luxurious beachfront suites or pool villas and enjoy exhilarating activities such as clear-view kayaking, paddle-boarding and snorkelling. Working in partnership with the Lizard Island Research Station, the resort's Citizen Science programme allows guests to submit their wildlife photos via an app, and have their species identified to monitor the health of the reef.

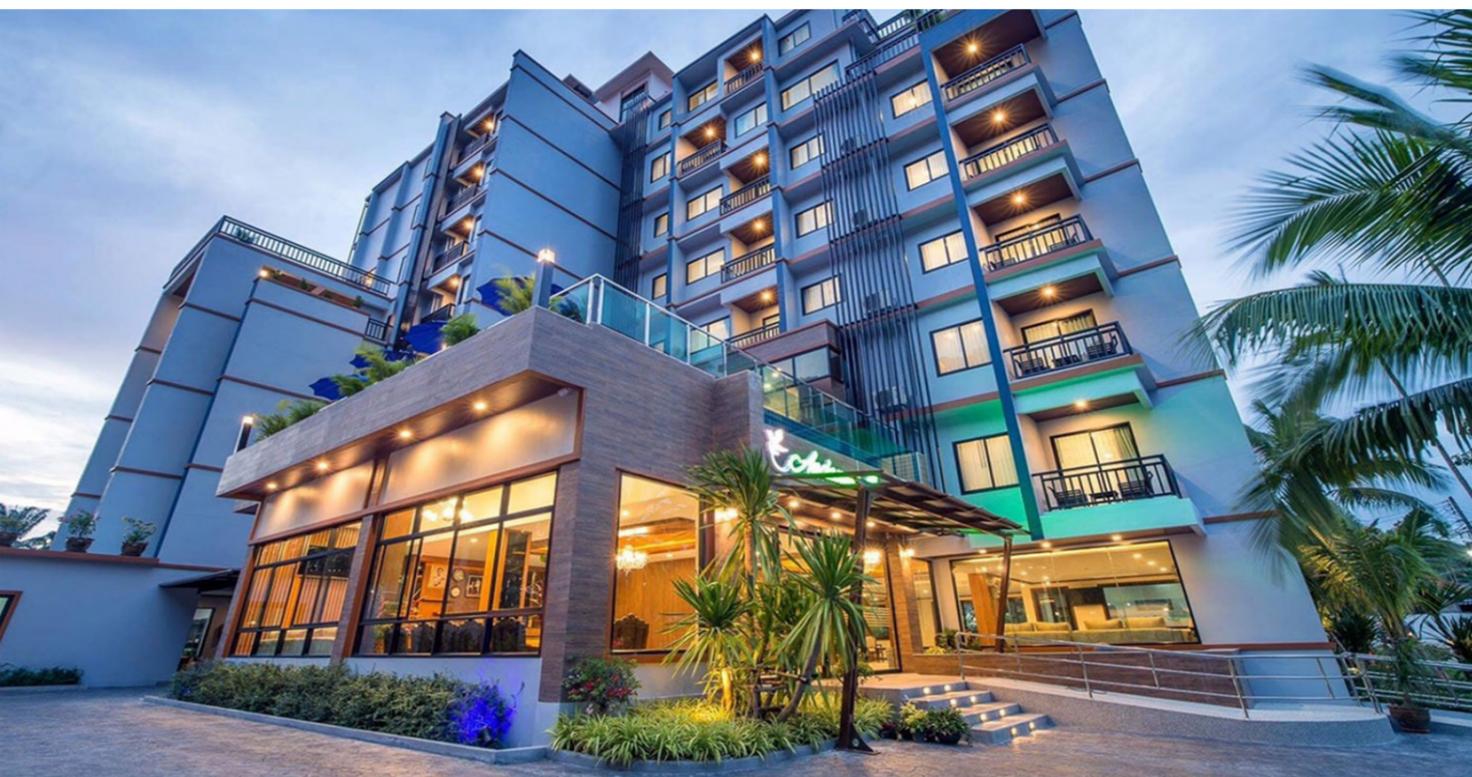

Six Senses Ninh Van Bay

Khanh Hoa Province, Vietnam

Perched on the end of a pristine peninsula on Vietnam's south-central coast, Six Senses Ninh Van Bay is a haven of tranquility where guests can stay in luxurious pool villas, enjoy world-class wellness and alfresco oceanfront dining. Sustainability is woven into every aspect of the resort, from its organic gardens and water bottling plant to its solar hot water system. A resident biologist is also employed full time to protect the local population of endangered black-shanked douc langurs.

Aonang Silver Orchid RESORT

Your Ao Nang Home Away From Home

— WELCOME TO —

Andaman Breeze Resort

Overlooking the stunning limestone cliffs of Krabi, Andaman Breeze Resort is an ideal holiday getaway for the whole family to enjoy tranquility and easy access to the beach, shops and restaurants.

Each day in Krabi is a brand new adventure and we look forward to making your holiday wishes come true.

Set in a peaceful location overlooking the iconic Ao Nang cliffs in Krabi, Aonang Silver Orchid Resort's new 4-storey building offers comfortable, family-friendly accommodation with plenty of convenient amenities.
