FOREWORD

Welcome to the October 2023 edition of Travel Aggregator, WebBeds' monthly newsletter dedicated to the travel trade in Asia Pacific.

Do you love watching sport? All around the world, an increasing number of fans are travelling to watch their favourite stars in action and experience the buzz of the crowd. In this edition, we look at four of the planet's most popular sports and reveal the best places to watch them live. This coincides with WebBeds' new Principal Partnership with Fulham FC, the English Premier League team which is one of the oldest football clubs in the world!

Or are you the type of person who would happily leave your sport-loving partner on the sofa while you go out shopping? If so, we've got the perfect article for you! Discover four of the hottest retail havens in Asia, from bustling commercial streets to mesmerizing mega-malls, and find out where to shop and stay.

Autumn is an exquisite time of year to travel in North Asia, as the green summer foliage bursts into a colourful kaleidoscope of reds, yellows, browns and golds. If you dream of getting back to nature, we showcase the best destinations to witness these spectacular seasonal displays.

This month, our "Featured Hotel" is the five-star Sri Panwa Phuket, "Newly-Opened" checks in to Dusit Thani Kyoto, and we'll also give you the inside track on Ras Al Khaimah, one of the UAE's most compelling destinations. And of course, you can catch up with all the latest news, photos and exclusive offers from WebBeds in Asia Pacific.

Enjoy the read!

Dusit Thani Kyoto

Dusit International, the famous Thai hotel group, has introduced its gracious Asian hospitality to Japan with the launch of a new five-star Dusit Thani hotel in Kyoto.

Situated in the Shimogyo Ward of the city, within easy reach of Kyoto's famous UNESCO World Heritage-listed temples, shrines and palaces, Dusit Thani Kyoto is a luxurious urban sanctuary that is designed in a contemporary Japanese style. Guests can stay in a choice of spacious and elegant accommodation, ranging from 40sqm Superior Rooms to the stunning 173sqm Imperial Suite.

Six dining and social venues include Ayatana, which is overseen by culinary pioneers Bo Songvisava and Dylan Jones from the legendary Bo.lan restaurant in Bangkok, Kôyô, an exclusive and seasonal chef's table experience, and Den Kyoto, the ultra-trendy bar. The team at Dusit Thani Kyoto can also arrange activities that will immerse visitors in the heart and soul of this ancient city, from tea rituals and drum workshops to food tours, hiking adventures and more.

When guests are not exploring the cultural and culinary wonders of Kyoto, they can take a dip in the indoor pool, work out in the fitness area, or enjoy authentic Thai spa therapies at Devarana Wellness, which features four treatment rooms and a suite with private bath facilities.

For couples and families seeking an inspiring stay in the heart of this heritage-rich city, Dusit Thani Kyoto offers the perfect blend of two enchanting Asian cultures.

Enchanting Autumn Escapes in North Asia

Autumn is an enchanting time of year to travel in North Asia. All across the region, forests and parks burst into a breath-taking array of colours, as the verdant landscapes of summer give way to a vibrant tapestry of red, yellow, brown and gold. Whether you're a nature lover who wants to get off the beaten track or a photography enthusiast seeking stunning shots, autumn's evocative palette will illuminate every escape.

Salt Mountain Grand Valley

 GANGWON, SOUTH KOREA

The rolling hills of Gangwon province are a wonderful setting to soak up the scenic wonders of autumn in South Korea. At Salt Mountain Grand Valley, the forest-clad cliffs that rise steeply from the river flourish in a riot of colour. For unparalleled views of this natural phenomenon, step onto the Sogeumsan Mountain Suspension Bridge, the longest and highest pedestrian bridge in South Korea.

Oak Valley Resort

This outstanding upscale retreat puts you in the heart of this natural landscape. Every room or suite frames spectacular views of the surrounding hills, the outdoor pool and sports facilities offer great opportunities to unwind, and the restaurants showcase local and international cuisine. Make sure you head out, explore the area's network of hiking trails and take plenty of photos.

Baiyun Mountain

 GUANGZHOU, CHINA

Located just a few kilometres from the centre of Guangzhou, Baiyun Mountain, which literally means “White Cloud Mountain,” is a popular scenic spot which is famous for the veil of clouds that rises every autumn. This makes it the perfect time to come and enjoy the stunning mountain scenery, which is blessed with an ever-changing kaleidoscope of deep reds, bright yellows and verdant greens.

White Swan Hotel

With its unique location on Shamian Island, overlooking the Pearl River, this five-star hotel is one of Guangzhou's most iconic places to stay. Away from the hustle and bustle of the city, you can relax in a luxurious oasis with a graceful waterfall in the lobby and a wealth of fantastic facilities, including a heated outdoor pool, a spa, designer shops and diverse restaurants and bars.

Nara Park

 NARA, JAPAN

Nara is an exquisite, heritage-rich city with parks, gardens and temples that date back over 1,200 years. Set at the foot of Mount Wakakusa, Nara Park is one of the oldest public parks in Japan and has been designated as a "Place of Scenic Beauty." Stroll through the leafy pastures, watch the wild silka deer, and snap photos of the autumn foliage as it shines with seasonal shades of red and gold.

Ando Hotel Nara Wakakusayama

This elegant upscale hotel infuses every stay with the essence of Japanese culture. Nestled in the hills and overlooking the landscapes of Nara Park, this is a place to escape the stress and strain of city life and unwind in style. After a day of discovery at Mount Wakakusa, dine at Terrace Wakakusayama or soothe your senses in a hot spring bath on the rooftop of the hotel.

Solea Seaview, the inaugural building of the Solea Mactan Resort, commenced its journey with a modest 63 rooms and officially opened its doors on March 6, 2013.

Solea, an emerging homegrown hospitality brand, initially gained recognition with its renowned all-inclusive resort in Mactan, Cebu. However, due to the pandemic, the resort shifted its focus from international tourists to cater more to local visitors. As lockdown restrictions gradually eased, Solea is once again setting its sights on a broader market, including guests from Metro Manila.

With a commitment to maintaining global standards in features, amenities, and service, Solea aims to shine as a new star in the local hospitality industry.

WATCH ALL THE ACTION, LIVE!

Are you mesmerized by the skills of Lionel Messi or wowed by the power of Serena Williams? Do you stay up late to watch the F1 or invite friends over for a Super Bowl party? Whichever sport gets your heart pumping, there is no better way to watch it than live, surrounded by thousands of fellow fans. Sports tourism is one of the fastest-growing sectors of the industry; here are four of the most exciting experiences to watch around the world...

Basketball

Fast, free-flowing and gravity-defying, basketball is America's favourite national pastime. Head to any city in the USA and you'll see people shooting hoops; whether it's a group of young people dunking on a downtown court, or a parent and child enjoying some bonding time on their driveway. But to see world-class basketball players in action, one of the best places to visit is Los Angeles, the home of the NBA's LA Lakers and Clippers, and the WNBA's LA Sparks.

 WHERE TO STAY

Freehand Los Angeles

Freehand Los Angeles puts you in the cultural epicentre of LA, surrounded by iconic attractions and only five minutes' drive from the Crypto.com Arena, where all three of the city's major basketball teams play. Stay in designer rooms, suites and studios, cool off at the outdoor pool, dine in style at a choice of restaurants and sip artisan cocktails at Broken Shaker, the rooftop oasis, amid the shining skyscrapers of downtown LA.

F1 Motor Racing

Formula One motor racing is one of the most thrilling spectacles on Earth. This thrilling, high-octane sport attracts fans and celebrities from all over the world, as the planet's most talented – and bravest – drivers battle it out at speeds of up to 350kph! Hosting the final race of the F1 season, Abu Dhabi's Yas Marina is a stunning setting to watch the adrenaline-fueled action up-close – especially as the sun sets and the floodlights illuminate the track.

Crowne Plaza Abu Dhabi - Yas Island

Crowne Plaza Abu Dhabi - Yas Island puts you in the heart of the action, right next to the Yas Marina circuit on Abu Dhabi's resort island. Even when the F1 cars aren't on track, nearby Ferrari World is a thrilling theme park featuring the world's fastest roller-coaster! Stay in upscale rooms and suites, unwind at the outdoor pool, spa, fitness center and kids' club, or dine at a choice of five restaurants and bars.

Football

The planet's most popular sport, football is a multi-billion-dollar industry whose top stars are among the most famous people on Earth. The modern game originated in the UK more than 150 years ago, so there is nowhere better to experience it than Craven Cottage, the oldest football stadium in London which is nestled on the banks of the River Thames and is the home of Premier League team Fulham FC. WebBeds is proud to be this historic team's Principal Partner.

Get tickets to watch Fulham FC in action.

 WHERE TO STAY

The Chelsea Harbour Hotel

The Chelsea Harbour Hotel is perfectly positioned in affluent West London, just 15 minutes' drive from Craven Cottage. This five-star, all-suite hotel is set on the banks of the river and offers panoramic views of Chelsea Harbour Marina. Unwind at the spa and health club, swim in the indoor pool, or sip classic cocktails and savour memorable meals at Anchor Bar & Terrace, which is inspired by the age-old trade of the Thames.

A Muay Thai match is taking place in a ring. Two fighters are engaged in a sparring session, with one fighter in blue shorts and blue gloves performing a high kick towards the other fighter in white shorts and red gloves. A referee in a blue shirt is positioned between them, observing the action. The ring is surrounded by blue seats, and the ceiling is a prominent black and white checkered pattern. The scene is lit with dramatic, low-key lighting, highlighting the fighters and the referee against the dark background of the arena.

Muay Thai

The national sport of Thailand, Muay Thai boxing has become famous all around the world. This high-energy martial art sees competitors use their fists, elbows, knees and shins to score points against their opponent. This also makes it an outstanding activity for all-round fitness, and many people have incorporated these techniques into their exercise routines. To watch the best fighters in action, Thailand's Muay Thai stadiums provide a thrilling sporting and cultural experience.

Thai Fight Hotel

Thai Fight Hotel is the world's first Muay Thai hotel. Located in Koh Samui, this stylish upscale property features a choice of rooms and pool villas, a spa and Thai restaurant. And of course, you can learn the art of Thai boxing at the Thai Fight Physports gym, where free classes are available for all guests from Fridays to Wednesdays. To watch the pros up-close, Phetch Buncha Muay Thai Boxing Stadium is just 20 minutes' drive away.

Embark on an Arabian Adventure in Ras Al Khaimah

Soak up the spirit of Arabia in Ras Al Khaimah, which blends breath-taking scenery and ancient history with the contemporary energy of the UAE. Explore the mesmerizing mountains of Jebel Jais, embark on exotic desert adventures, stroll through the traditional souks or simply unwind on the golden beaches. With year-round sunshine, world-class cuisine and exhilarating activities, this is a destination that never fails to inspire the imagination.

Explore the ancient heritage of Dhayah Fort

The beautiful golden towers of the Dhayah Fort sit proudly on a 70-metre hill, high above the skyline of Ras Al Khaimah. The only remaining hill fort in the UAE, this ancient structure dates from 1,600 BCE and has been inscribed on the UNESCO World Heritage list. Climb the 239 steps to the summit and soak up the stunning views.

Shop till you drop at Manar Mall

Ras Al Khaimah is a shopper's paradise, with a wealth of places to indulge in retail therapy. Perfectly positioned on a waterfront promenade, Manar Mall is home to 120 stores including famous fashion brands, jewellery, home furnishings and much more. For families, the mall also features the UAE's largest indoor adventure play area.

Learn about the local tradition of Suwaidi Pearls

Pearl fishing in Ras Al Khaimah dates back over seven millennia and helped the emirate to become one of the Middle East's busiest ports. Today, travellers can uncover this time-honoured trade at Suwaidi Pearl Farm, which is located in the foothills of the Jebel Jais mountains and showcases the rich heritage of pearl farming.

Dine at the UAE's highest restaurant

1484 by Puro elevates every dining experience to impressive new heights! Perched in the mountains, this is the highest restaurant in the UAE and blends fantastic food with breath-taking views of the rugged landscape. While it is open throughout the day, this enchanting indoor and alfresco venue is truly spectacular at sunset.

 RECOMMENDED HOTEL

Citymax Ras Al Khaimah

Citymax Ras Al Khaimah is a stylish midscale hotel that puts the entire emirate on your doorstep. Centrally located in the Al Nakheel area, overlooking the creek, the property features 204 contemporary rooms, a rooftop pool, state-of-the-art gym and a choice of dining options, including the Claypot all-day restaurant and a 24-hour Lavazza coffee shop. The old town, traditional souks and modern shopping malls are all within easy reach.

Rixos Bab Al Bahr

Rixos Bab Al Bahr sets the stage for truly immersive beachside vacations. Nestled on Marjan Island, this all-inclusive resort is a destination in its own right, with a wealth of five-star facilities including 14 restaurants and bars, eight swimming pool, sports courts, a fully-equipped gym, soothing spa, water sports, kids' club and so much more.
