FOREWORD

Welcome to the final Travel Aggregator of the year, as WebBeds' monthly newsletter for Asia Pacific bids a fond farewell to 2026 with an edition packed with exciting and insightful content.

When you travel, do you like to go exploring after dark? All across the region, cities and resorts are transformed when the sun sets, and if you're not a night owl you could be missing some spectacular sights and magical moments. From glittering cityscapes to golden sunsets over the ocean, the evenings are filled with wonder.

In this issue, we reveal six destinations in Asia Pacific where visitors can experience a difference side of life after the sun goes down. And as the festive season approaches, the sparkling Christmas and New Year lights could give you some fresh inspiration for your end-of-year celebrations!

If you're seeking a hotel that captures the heart and "Seoul" of South Korean hospitality, check out our feature on NINE TREE BY PARNAS. Launched in 2009, this impressive brand has grown to a collection of five world-class properties across the country, including prime locations in the main cultural, commercial and fashion districts of Seoul.

This month, our "Featured Hotel" is Brij Pola, Jawai, a luxury tented camp in the Indian state of Rajasthan, "Newly Opened" takes a first look at Mandarin Oriental Makati, which marks this famous hotel group's return to Manila, and of course, you can catch up with all the latest news, photos and exclusive offers from WebBeds in Asia Pacific.

We would like to thank you all - our travel trade friends, partners and colleagues - for your passion, expertise and commitment to creating exceptional guest experiences in the last 12 months. WebBeds looks forward to working side-by-side with you again in 2027, as we continue to move the industry forward. We are always stronger together.

Have a great festive season!

Newly Opened

Mandarin Oriental Makati, Manila

Mandarin Oriental Hotel Group will make a spectacular return to Manila later this month with the opening of Mandarin Oriental Makati, Manila, a striking new landmark that rises 99 metres above the financial heart of the city.

Set within a green urban environment at Ayala Triangle Gardens, this modern luxury hotel is inspired by nature. Guests can stay in a choice of 275 rooms and suites - including a range of family options - all blessed with state-of-the-art amenities and floor-to-ceiling windows. For truly exclusive experiences, the Two-Bedroom Presidential Suite offers 282 square metres of space with a dramatic double-height living area.

Travellers have myriad ways to unwind, including the Mandarin Oriental Spa, a stunning 25-metre outdoor swimming pool, and a fitness centre with Technogym equipment. Refined dining can be enjoyed at a choice of five restaurants and bars. Bì Luò presents contemporary Cantonese cuisine, while Illóy is a vibrant international all-day restaurant, and Layara celebrates the flavours of the Philippine archipelago. The Lounge offers daytime and evening refreshments, including afternoon tea, and Alambik is a sophisticated whiskey and cigar lounge.

Twelve years after the famous Mandarin Oriental Manila closed its doors, the launch of Mandarin Oriental Makati, Manila marks the rebirth of an Asian hospitality icon in one of the world's most dynamic destinations.

ENCHANTING EVENINGS in ASIA PACIFIC

To truly understand and appreciate a destination, it must be experienced at night. While a city or resort can feel bright and bustling by day, its atmosphere is often transformed after dark. As the street lights start to shine, energy levels begin to rise. Revellers chat and laugh together as they walk side by side, excited for their evening ahead, and street-side restaurants and bars radiate a warm, welcoming glow. The night is full of possibilities!

Here are five destinations in Asia Pacific that light up when the sun goes down...

Spiritual Sunsets in Bali

The “Island of the Gods” exudes a deeply spiritual atmosphere at any time of day. But as the sun sets over the Indian Ocean, a special kind of magic seems to sweep across Bali. The “floating temple” of Tanah Lot is a stunning spot to watch the golden sun dip beneath the horizon, as the waves crash onto the rocks below. Alternatively, the beach clubs of Canggu provide chic settings to sip cool cocktails and settle in for the night ahead.

RECOMMENDED HOTEL

ZIN Canggu Resort & Villas

ZIN Canggu Resort & Villas is a natural sanctuary where travellers can unwind and embrace the spirit of Bali. The stylish rooms, suites and pool villas are all adorned with natural materials, such as bamboo and teak, while ZIN Wellness offers myriad ways to relax, including a gym and Pilates area. As day turns to night, couples and friends can stroll to Canggu Beach - just 100 metres away - and kick off their shoes as the beach clubs turn up the volume.

Skyline Discoveries in Guangzhou

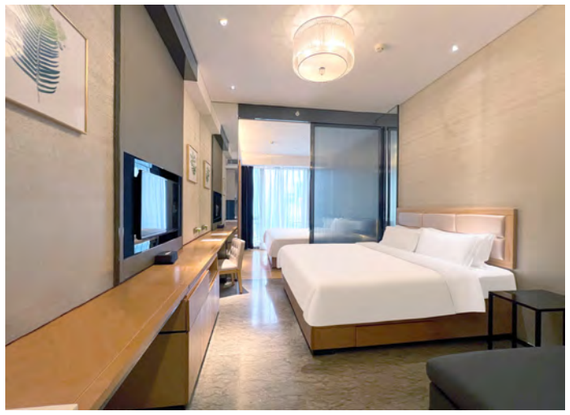

Guangzhou is one of the tallest cities on Earth, and while this high-rise skyline is impressive by day, it is truly dazzling after dark. Take a cruise along the Pearl River to see the city from a different perspective, as bright lights reflect on the rippling water. The Canton Tower is one of Asia's most dramatic modern landmarks; rising 604 metres and with multiple observation decks, restaurants, and 360-degree views, this urban icon sets the stage for unforgettable evenings.

Vaperse Hotel Guangzhou

Vaperse Hotel Guangzhou commands a prime location in the city's main business district, surrounded by nightlife and entertainment. Guests can stay in a choice of rooms, suites and serviced apartments, take a refreshing dip in the outdoor swimming pool, or work out in the fitness centre. With a choice of Chinese and Western restaurants, this is a sophisticated place to dine, and the local area is home to an amazing array of culinary and social venues amid the skyscrapers.

Vibrant Night Markets in Hua Hin

Thailand is famous for its night markets. By day, the streets of towns and cities are traffic-laden thoroughfares, but after dark they transform into multi-sensory commercial and cultural havens. In Hua Hin, the charming beachfront town just 2.5 hours' drive from Bangkok, visitors can explore Hua Hin Night Market, where the sizzling street food attracts locals and tourists alike. Alternatively, Cicada Market is great for souvenir hunters, with original artworks, artefacts and handmade crafts.

RECOMMENDED HOTEL

NH Hua Hin

NH Hua Hin is a contemporary upscale hotel that puts travellers in the heart of this royal seaside town, just 500 metres from the long, sandy beach. All ages can relax with a rooftop pool, a kids' club and children's pool, while Saan Restaurant presents Thai and international cuisine throughout the day, and Som Bar is an elevated setting to sip sundowners next to the pool. The hotel provides a complimentary shuttle service to Cicada Market every Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

The Wonder of Nature in Singapore

A famously green city, Singapore balances urban energy with natural serenity. This environmental commitment can be witnessed at Gardens by the Bay, the awe-inspiring waterfront landscape where the iconic “Supertrees” are illuminated in an enchanting, otherworldly display every evening. Singapore’s Night Safari lets visitors witness the nocturnal habits of diverse wildlife, from tigers to Tasmanian devils. And as the festive season draws near, the popular shopping district of Orchard Road sparkles with Christmas lights.

RECOMMENDED HOTEL

The Capitol Kempinski Hotel Singapore

The Capitol Kempinski Hotel Singapore is an elegant, colonial-style property in the Civic & Cultural District, directly connected to the Capitol Theatre and within walking distance of City Hall and Merlion Park. Having explored these downtown attractions by day, guests can settle in for memorable meals at the acclaimed 15 Stamford Restaurant, which presents a special "Festive Set Dinner" this December, or sip cocktails infused with traditional Christmas spices at The Bar at 15 Stamford.

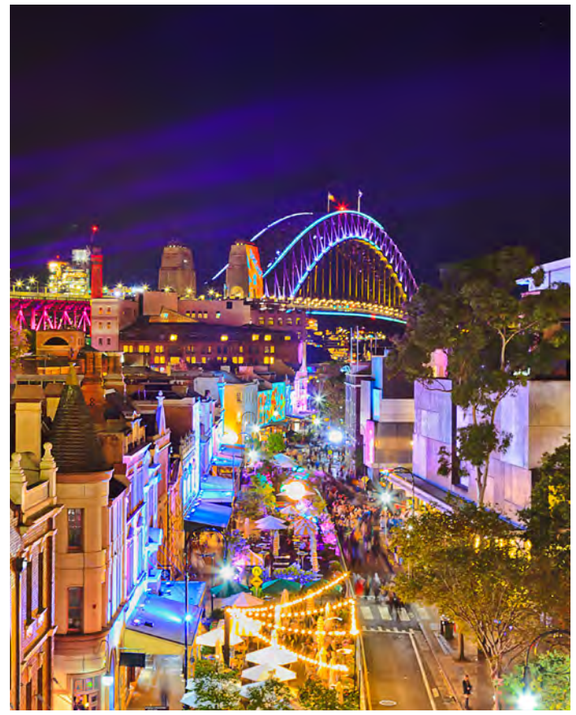

Waterfront Lights in Sydney

Sydney Harbour is one of the planet's most recognisable waterfronts. Every evening, iconic landmarks such as the Harbour Bridge and Opera House are lit up to create fantastic photo opportunities, while The Rocks is a lively district to grab a drink or a bite to eat. Of course, there is no better time to witness Sydney than New Year's Eve, when the city stages a spectacular countdown party. Simply pick your perfect viewing spot and watch in awe as the bay erupts with fireworks at midnight.

RECOMMENDED HOTEL

Furama Darling Harbour Hotel

Furama Darling Harbour Hotel is surrounded by the upbeat energy of Sydney's CBD, just steps from waterfront attractions such as SEA LIFE Sydney Aquarium. Set in a heritage building that dates back to 1890, this upscale hotel features modern rooms and suites, including spacious family options, plus a 24-hour fitness centre. Right next to the hotel's entrance, Shipley's Restaurant serves a daily Australian breakfast, and the bars and restaurants of Cockle Bay Wharf are within easy reach.

Late Night Bites in Tokyo

Japan's capital city sparkles after dark. As neon signs cast their soft glow across the streets, residents and office workers flock to cosy eateries known as izakayas. Often tucked away in alleyways, these intimate venues are popular with locals. But visitors who step inside will be rewarded with lively chat, local beers and authentic light bites. Alternatively, foodies can seek out Tokyo's finest ramen restaurants, which often stay open after midnight to satisfy those late-night noodle cravings.

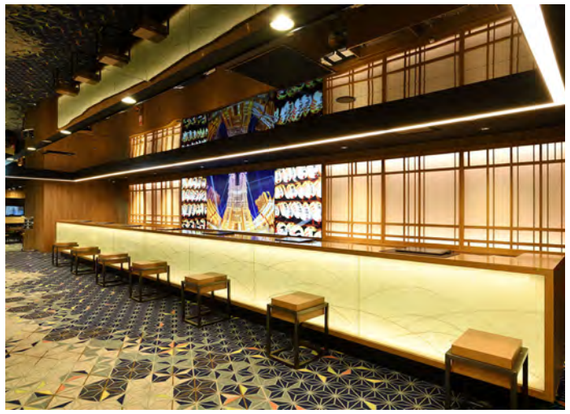

RECOMMENDED HOTEL

Shinjuku Prince Hotel

Shinjuku Prince Hotel is within walking distance of two of Tokyo's liveliest nightlife districts - Shinjuku Golden Gai and Kabukicho - where guests can discover an amazing array of traditional izakayas and ramen shops. Enjoy retail therapy at the Seibu Shinjuku PePe mall, then head out and explore the vibrant, neon-lit streets. With rooms rising from the 10th to the 24th floors, and FUGA Japanese restaurant perched on Level 25, this is the perfect place to rise above the city.

FEATURED HOTEL OF THE MONTH

Featured Hotel of the Month

Brij Pola, Jawai

Sculpted into the desert landscape of Jawai, in the regal Indian state of Rajasthan, Brij Pola is a luxury tented camp where guests can feel seamlessly connected to the nature that surrounds them.

Paying homage to this unique environment, this rural retreat blends rustic design and sustainable materials with five-star facilities and home comforts. Travellers can stay in a choice of Jawai Signature Tents, each spanning more than 230 square metres and fitted with four-poster beds, deep soaking bathtubs, outdoor terraces with barbecues, and heated plunge pools in many of the rooms. The handwoven linen is designed by Help In Suffering, a local animal welfare NGO, to help conserve the region's wildlife.

FEATURED HOTEL OF THE MONTH

Throughout their vacation, guests can embark on safari tours to uncover native species such as leopards, hyenas, bears and crocodiles, as well as a dazzling array of birdlife, or learn about the human culture of Jawai with village tours, temple visits, pottery classes and cookery lessons. Then, as day turns to night, couples can enjoy a "Dinner Under the Stars" experience, and stargazing sessions will reveal the breath-taking beauty of the night sky.

For travellers who want to escape the stress of their city lives, unwind in nature and discover the heart and soul of Rajasthan, Brij Pola is a wonderfully rewarding destination.
